

AUXILIARY PEGGY BULMER VOLUNTEER AWARD

Charlotte Joudrey is a new honors graduate of Kennebecasis Valley High School. She plans on attending university in the coming year to pursue a nursing degree with potentially further graduate studies to follow. She is described as confident, organized and committed, with a genuine passion for people.

The Peggy Bulmer volunteer award is awarded to acknowledge a volunteer with outstanding people skills who is committed to excellence in every aspect of volunteering; with Charlotte's references, it is clear that she is exactly that person.

With volunteer hours at the Saint John Regional Hospital spanning back to 2015, Charlotte is clearly a very dedicated volunteer. Outside of the hospital where she has shown a dedication to make a difference in the lives of others, Charlotte has also volunteered with the Syrian refugees and the PALS initiative. In addition to her community involvement, Charlotte has held part time jobs at the Auxiliary gift shop and Lawtons Drugs; other interests include reading and traveling.

With Charlotte's pursuit of nursing and further graduate studies in health care, she is a commendable recipient of the SJRH Auxiliary Peggy Bulmer Volunteer Award for 2017.

AUXILIARY DR. DEBORAH MITTON VOLUNTEER AWARD

Jonathan Adams is a new honors graduate of Saint John High School. He has been accepted into Memorial University where he will certainly continue to excel in his studies. Jonathan is described as hardworking, respectful, courteous, and extremely kind. As “an individual who always thinks of other people”, he should thrive in his pursuit of a nursing career.

The Dr. Deborah Mitton volunteer award is given to an individual in acknowledgement of dedication to volunteerism, high academic achievement and dedication to their future career. Jonathan more than embodies all of these characteristics.

Above his volunteer hours at the Saint John Regional Hospital, Jonathan also volunteers for various initiatives within his school, including but not limited to the school breakfast program. It is very clear that Jonathan holds high value in volunteerism and the personal growth that can be achieved by giving to others.

Outside of his time volunteering, Jonathan is involved in student activities such as drama, plays electric bass, and has held part time employment throughout much of his high school years.

Given his glowing recommendations and overall positivity, we are certain that Jonathan will excel in his chosen profession of nursing, making Jonathan a worthy recipient of the SJRH Auxiliary Dr. Deborah Mitton Volunteer Award for 2017.

AUXILIARY THERESA CASEY VOLUNTEER AWARD

Lauren Hovey is a recent honors graduate of St. Malachy's Memorial High School. She plans on attending UNB in the coming year to pursue further education in science with a focus on biology and psychology. She ultimately wishes to pursue a career specifically involved with children. She is described as a hard worker with integrity and a positive outlook on life.

The Theresa Casey volunteer award is awarded to a well-rounded high school student who is also an outstanding volunteer. Lauren definitely exemplifies the definition of a well-rounded individual.

With over 125 volunteer hours at the Saint John Regional Hospital, Lauren is very dedicated to her volunteer commitments. Outside of the Auxiliary, she has also volunteered for Touch A Truck, the Teddy Bear Fair and as a dance instructor.

Besides her interests in volunteering, Lauren spends her time boating and playing organized sports, such as soccer and dance. She has also held several part time jobs.

Lauren has noted that she has enjoyed having the opportunity to "brighten the days" of people within the hospital; for that, and so many other reasons, we commend her as the recipient of the SJRH Auxiliary Theresa Casey Volunteer Award for 2017.
